

CIArb West Midlands Branch Event:

Date: 14/10/2024

Time: 17:30

Venue: Gowling WLG, Two Snow Hill
Birmingham B4 6WR

Who should attend?

This Adjudication Seminar is for anyone who has an interest in adjudication.

The seminar will about focus on the influence of UK statutory adjudication across other jurisdictions and make comparisons between the UK and other models. It will cover the development of adjudication in the UK and the role and effect of the TCC. It will provide an overview of the “security of payment” adjudication model(s) v the UK model, highlighting the common principles and core differences and a discussion of whether we will see adjudication expand to other industries/sectors in the future.

Biographies of the speakers

Matt Molloy FRICS FCIOB FCIArb

Matt is an experienced dispute resolver and has been appointed in over 900 construction and engineering disputes as either adjudicator, arbitrator, mediator, expert determiner, Conflict or Dispute Avoidance Panel/Board member. These disputes have concerned a number of high-profile projects within the UK and internationally and have involved complex technical and legal issues in a variety of sectors, including education, private and public housing, offices, hotels and leisure, sports stadia, roads and infrastructure, utilities, energy and process engineering. Matt sits on numerous panels of adjudicators and has recently co-authored his first book entitled “Adjudicating Construction and Engineering Disputes”.

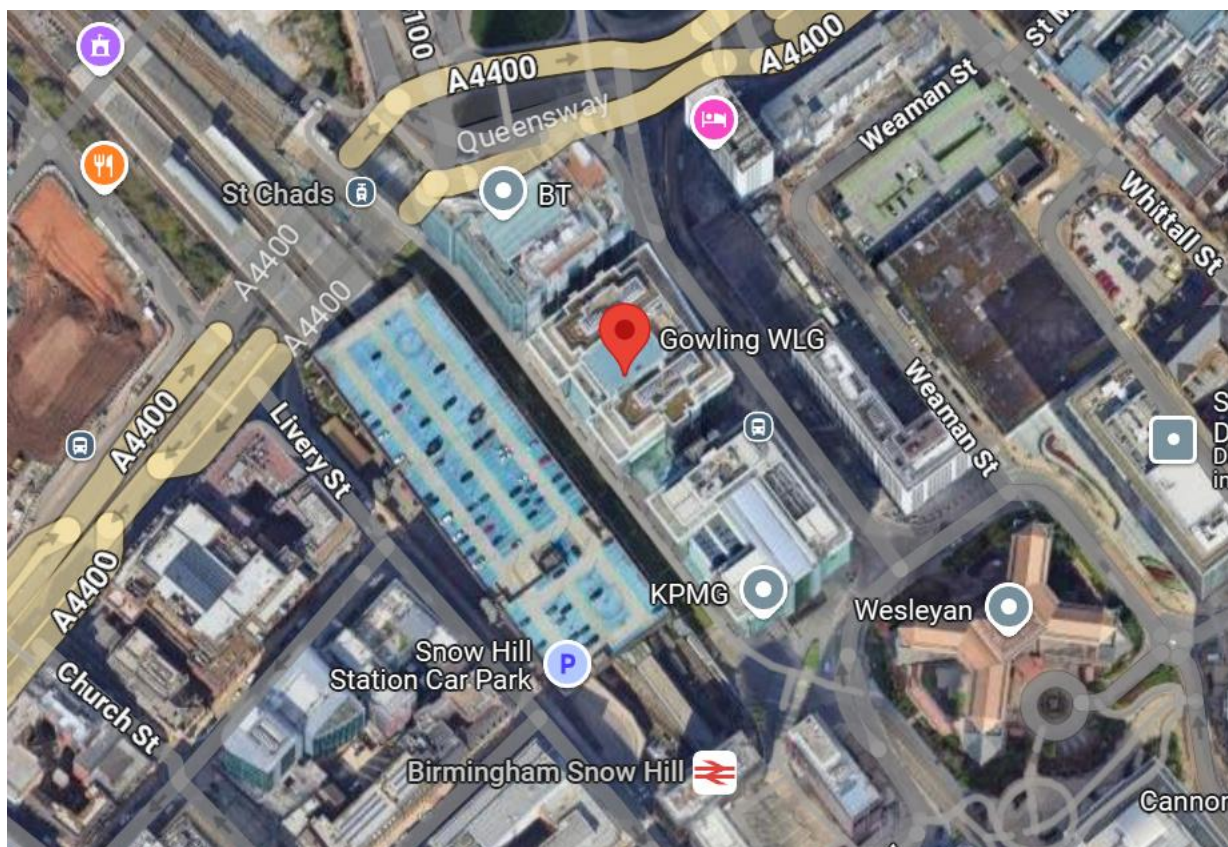

Louise Smith, Gowling WLG

Louise has over 25 years' experience as a construction lawyer in private practice and in-house, with a broad and an in-depth knowledge of construction law and the construction industry. She has acted for developers, main contractors, subcontractors and consultants in litigation, arbitrations, adjudications and mediations. In light of her in-house experience as Head of Legal for a tier 1 infrastructure Contractor Louise has a unique insight into the decision-making process and approach taken by commercial stakeholders
