Matthew has worked in the construction industry since 1987. He qualified as a Chartered Quantity Surveyor in 1993, having completed his studies on a part time basis at the University of Greenwich whilst working for a national contractor. Once qualified he joined a regional contractor, and progressed to Contracts Management after undertaking an MSc in Construction Management by distance learning at the University of Bath and qualifying as a Chartered Builder. Since forming MCMS, Matthew has specialised in providing quantity surveying services, contract advice and dispute resolution services to a wide variety of clients. He has been admitted as a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and is a Practising Member of the Academy of Experts. He is a CEDR trained Mediator and has been called to the Bar. He is regularly appointed or agreed as Adjudicator, and is on the RICS, RIBA, TeCSA, CI Arb, CEDR and AICA panels of Adjudicators. Matthew also acts as Expert Determiner, Mediator and Arbitrator, and has been appointed as Arbitrator by the ICC.
